

Contents

AUGUST 2010

4 Chairman's Column

The money-go-round.
By George Done

5 AOPA Working for You

IAOPA's Brussels lobbyists come good; Strasser wins CAA Safety Award; come to Duxford on September 18th; sign up for the Mentoring Scheme; EASA abandons the PPL Instructor; Red Arrows infringements on the rise; first four Airbox Aware winners; Egnos comes on line; join in the Class G survey.

15 Ferry nightmare

Seven hours out, 300 miles from land and the engine stops. David Plange lives to tell the story

18 Flying Solo

After 33 years and many tribulations, Mel Stewart's Soloflight at Humberside offers some special deals. By Pat Malone

21 London's vertical gateway

Battersea Heliport gets an expensive upgrade to attract the high-end flier. Pat Malone reports

22 Sea to shining sea

Charles Strasser flies to Israel in his Seneca II and puts a foot in three seas in one day

26 Extra special

First-time aerobatic flyer Paul Ferguson turns sunny side down in an Extra 200 and loves every second

31 Briefings

Awards for the aviation world

32 IAOPA World Assembly

Comprehensive coverage of International AOPA's biennial World Assembly in Tel Aviv. By Pat Malone

44 Book reviews

48 Britten-Norman Islander

Versatile, rugged and capable, the B-N Islander is still going strong all over the world after 45 years. David Ogilvy flies the type

